CENTRAL EVANGELICAL GUILD MEMBERS COMPLETES PLANS FOR TWO-DAY BAZAAR

Members of Central Evangelical Guild are completing plans for the two-day rummage sale which is to be a feature of their gala carnival, set for Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24, Arlington avenues.

Chairman of the rummage sale, Mrs. Alice Spehoger, asks that contributions be left at the hall today to enable the committee to segregate the articles in advance of the sale.

Children's clothing will be especially appreciated and the women hope for a large selection of dresses for women and girls because taller women, bent upon having the "new look," no doubt will be generous in handing over many of their clothes, no longer long enough, to be used by shorter women who still can make use of them effectively.

This is just one feature of the money-raising event, which it is hoped will result in adding considerable funds to the Guild treasury.

Other attractions of the benefit will be a food sale under the supervision of Mrs. J. S. Lancaster and a miscellaneous household booth, with sales to be directed by Mrs. D. N. McCormack.

Vernon Babcock, Lucille Rampley Close Year's Work

This past week marked the close of a year's work for the officers under the leadership of Lucille Rampley and Vernon Babcock, royal matron and royal patron of Redondo Court, Order of Amaranth, meeting in Redondo Masonic Temple.

Josephine Schwartz will act as chairman for the eventful evening assisted by the following corps of committee members: Retta Nelson, Ada Ashmore, Bernice Nansel, Grace De Pries, Maude Barnard, Mary Jorgensen, Madge Leyman, Olive Mayer, Edith Marriott, Alwine Ullman, Laura Glenn and Madge Wilson.

At a recent meeting of the lodge Belva Brase, junior past noble grand, entertained members of her 1947 officers when a spring motif was carried out in the decorations and committee members assisting her were Winifred Brase, Clara Connors, Elizabeth Hunt, Ada Andersen, Margie Russell and Maurine Goar.

During the business meeting Winifred Brase was appointed Good Fellowship chairman for the evening of April 30 when lodge members will journey to the Compton lodge. Delegates to represent Trio lodge at the state convention in Long Beach May 11 were Dr. Eta Woods, Pearl Montonye and Retta Nelson.

The Royal Matron elect, Josephine Spencer, announced the practice for the installation of officers, which will be held April 21st, practice being the preceding Sunday afternoon.

The evening was concluded in the banquet room where refreshments were served at beautifully decorated tables. Places were marked with potted cactus plants in glass containers.

Frances Buckley On Official Visit To Playa Linda Chapter

Frances Buckley, deputy grand matron of the 78th District, State of California, Order of the Eastern Star, paid her official visit to Playa Linda Chapter at the classic lodge rooms, Hermosa Beach.

Spring flowers decorated the Chapter room for the occasion, with a huge basket of dark red tulips making a spectacular display in the east.

A large crowd was present to welcome the deputy, from all over the district in which she is very popular.

Full Ritual The meeting opened in full ritualistic form, with Worthy Matron Bonnis Moss and Worthy Patron Al Moss presiding in the east.

The deputy grand matron, escorted into the chapter room by Irah Jean Brunson, marshal, was lovely in a pink and black figured dress with black lace inserts. Her bouq of pink roses was an eye catcher.

The following were given special escort and also invited to sit in the east: Logan Cotton, 'Y' Young Adults

At Initial Meet Thursday Night

The YWCA Young Adult Club of Torrance, Lomita, and Waveria held its first meeting in the Torrance City Hall on Thursday evening, April 15.

The meeting opened with the flag salute and the singing of "America the Beautiful." Devotions were led by Mrs. Martha Burkholder and group singing was under the leadership of Miss Joan Graves.

Miss Elaine Alsebrook, young adult program director of the San Pedro YWCA and speaker of the evening, explained to the group the philosophy of the YWCA and presented program emphasis to the club just being formed.

After giving a history of the YWCA, Miss Alsebrook stressed the policies of inclusiveness and democratic procedure in the YWCA. She said that any girl or woman was eligible for membership, despite color, creed, or nationality and that all members through committee groups could in a democratic way voice their opinion and plan their activities.

Miss Alsebrook stressed the fact that in no way does the YWCA replace the church, its activities, or responsibilities. Instead, the YWCA takes its impetus from the church and well-comes into its membership people of all faiths.

Miss Lynn Jackson closed the business meeting with suggestions for future club program activities. She announced the present in the club groups in session: Oil Painting, Arts and Crafts, Swimming, Ceramics, and she requested that the girls and women of the harbor area sign for future club interests, particularly bowling, to begin on April 30 if interest warrants the activity.

Chairman of the program planning committee was Mrs. Floy Boland, assisted by the Misses Doris Shaklee, Grace Hjerpe, Shirley Justice, Mildred Snell, Edna Snell, Joanne Pierce, Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Harry Hazelwood, Mrs. Myrtle Musselman and Mrs. Harry E. Massie.

Present at the meeting were: Edna May Snell, Elaine Alsebrook, Helen Lockwood, Mildred Hazelwood, Dorothy Smith, Joan Pierce, Katherine Kelley, Jean Moenan, Lorne Littrell, Martha Saffer, Martha Burkholder, Mary Leech, Shirley Peterson, Nelle Hcott, Rosalie Lisani, Lillian Strika, Alyce Marshall, Bettie Thomas, Lynn Jackson, Mildred Snell, Doris Shaklee, Myrtle Musselman, Margaret Massie.

AT EWALT HOME Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ewalt, of 1531 W. 219th street, have been entertaining as their guests, Mrs. W. Teserau and Mrs. A. Weimann, of St. Louis, Mo.

I FOOLED EVERYONE No wonder I'm laughing. My dad, Marvin Howard, manager of the Ideal Ranch Market, published "expert" advice that I would be born between April 19th and 30th. Remember, he told you that last week. But I sure fooled everyone. I was born April 17th at 9:45 A.M. R. Julian, 2091 Torrance Blvd., made the closest guess — April 17th at 2:10 P.M., and gets the $10.00 of free groceries and produce. P. S. My name is Gregg and I weighed 7 pounds and 15 ounces. Not bad, eh? Mom and I are doing nicely, thank you.
